

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION SITUATIONAL INFORMATION REPORT

Criminal Activity Alert

New York Division

16 February 2011

(U) Identification of Bloods Set Operating in Jamaica section of Queens, New York.

(U//LES) According to FBI source reporting, a new Bloods set has been identified operating within the area of the 113th Precinct, in the Jamaica section of Queens.¹ This set goes by the name the "DUMBOUTS" and members of it are known by the FBI to be actively involved in narcotics distribution, identity theft, as well as violence associated with the protection of their territory. The leader of this set is also suspected of being directly involved in a March 2010 homicide that occurred at a nightclub in Jamaica, Queens.

(U) FBI New York has been unable to corroborate this reporting. State and local law enforcement may have additional insight regarding the criminal activities of the members affiliated with this Bloods set.

(U) FBI Comment: Please contact FBI New York with any positive information regarding the "DUMBOUTS" or any newly identified street gang operating within New York City.

(U) Law Enforcement Sensitive: This information is the property of the FBI and may be distributed to state, tribal, or local government law enforcement officials with a need-to-know. Further distribution without FBI authorization is prohibited. Precautions should be taken to ensure this information is stored and/or destroyed in a manner that precludes unauthorized access.

(U) Warning: This is an information report, not finally evaluated intelligence. It is being shared for informational purposes but has not been fully evaluated, integrated with other information, interpreted, or analyzed. Receiving agencies are cautioned not to take actions based solely on this raw reporting unless the information is independently verified. A presumption of innocence still exists for any person being reported on in this report.
